NEWS NOTES FROM OUR NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

J. Alton Yeager of Pilot Rock, at present district sealer of weights and measures, has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for assessor of Umatilla county.

The salary of the Pendleton postmaster has been increased from $2700 a year to $2800, owing to an increase in postal receipts during the past year.

The Gilliam County Good Roads Association has been formed with E. C. Maddock, of Arlington, president; H. W. Lang, Arlington, secretary; A. Wheelhouse, Arlington, M. Fitzmaurice, Condon, W. J. Mariner, Blalock, F. W. White, Willows and Mrs. Belle Keyes of Mayville, vice presidents. It has been decided to ask all automobile owners of the county to contribute one dollar toward defraying the expenses of the club.

The Comedy and Minstrel Show given at Lou's Hall last Saturday evening, by the Yeoman Lodge of Ione, was one of the best that has come this way for some time. The house was filled with an appreciative audience and all went away loud in their praise of the talent shown by the young folks.—Arlington Independent.

Enterprise has a market day. From the Enterprise Record-Chiefman is taken the following: All indications point to a large sale and a great crowd in town Saturday, which will be the first Market Day of the season. Much stock and a variety of implements, household goods and other articles will be offered.

Frank B. Hayes, superintendent of the Pendleton Water department and Richard M. Mayberry, bookkeeper in the American National Bank of Pendleton, received serious injuries recently when a Ford runabout in which they were riding turned over on a steep grade near Milton. Hayes received two broken ribs and Mayberry's nose was broken.

A queer prize fight bet was pulled off here this week. Mose Coyle, the Barber, bet that Moran would win and Bob Wright bet him that Willard would come out first best. The loser was to roll a peanut the entire length of Main street with his nose. The mud being a little deep for such sport a compromise was made by which Mose wheeled Bob to the moving picture show every night this week in a wheel barrow.—Joseph Herald.

R. F. Wigglesworth was in Wednesday from his Little Butter creek ranch. He reports lambing to be about through, and the results are fair, notwithstanding the bad weather. Mr. Wigglesworth and sons have about 9000 sheep this season.—Echo News.

L. K. Harlan was in Echo Wednesday morning enroute to Baker. He said it is not definitely settled that Mr. Knappenberg will remain in the contest with Stanfield for joint representative.—Echo News.

Frank Metschan will return to Grant county during the next few days. He has been engaged in the hotel business at Grants Pass. He will be associated with L. Woldenberg here in the stage business.—Canyon City Blue Mountain Eagle.

THE BEST FROM JUDGE

Some Salesman!

"I can see at a glance, Madam," said he, "that you would not be interested in the preparation I am selling, except possibly as a gift to some of your neighbors."

"What are you selling," she inquired, with interest.

"A facial beauty preparation, Madam," he replied.

Why She Went.

"I just saw your wife going into old Dr. Soakum's office as I came around the corner," remarked Spigwell Atkins, to his old friend Jimson, "anyone sick in the family?"

Jimson, who always appeared tired, looked unusually so, as he made answer.

"Well, no, there isn't anyone really sick, but my wife said she was going to see the doctor for what ails her, and I expect old Soakum will render me a bill for about ten bucks for the valuable advice he gives her."

"What's wrong?"

"Well, in the morning my wife drinks three cups of strong coffee, and repeats the operation at dinner time, not forgetting her pot of tea for lunch. She's very fond of eating between meals and usually consumes about a pound of candy or half a cake during the day, just for exercise while she reads the latest novel or goes through the fashion magazines."

"Three nights a week she plays bridge whist until twelve o'clock, and never misses anything on the menu served at the close, whether the entertainment is given at our home or

BIG TOURIST TRAVEL
EXPECTED THIS YEAR

Portland, April 5. (Special)—Oregon, Washington and the cities of the Northwest in general should experience heavy tourist travel the coming summer. With Europe closed to the traveler and countless opportunities offered for sightseeing in the Pacific Northwest, efforts are being made to attract the attention of those who will soon be deciding where to spend the 1916 vacation period.

Thousands of newspaper articles will appear in publications over the United States and Canada this year. This material has been supplied to the big news services of the country, and to more than 150 publications direct by the publicity department of the Rose Festival. The articles have not only featured the festival but have exploited the scenic wonders of the Northwest in general.

The transportation department of the Tenth Annual Festival announces that sale dates from territory in the Northwest, bounded by Roseburg, Oregon; Centralia, Washington; Rainier, Oregon and The Dalles, Oregon and Grand Dalles, Washington, will be June 4th to June 9th, inclusive, with a final return limit of June 12th.

From territory south of Roseburg, North of Centralia and east of The Dalles and Grand Dalles as far as Idaho-Montana State line the sales dates will be from June 4th to 8th inclusive, with a final return limit of June 17th. While there will be no special fares from Eastern territory, summer excursion fares from points in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado and points east of these States will go into effect May 1st with a final return limit of October 31st.

The annual Rose Festival at Portland comes June 7th, 8th and 9th. Opening day will feature the national dedication of the Columbia River Highway and invitations have been sent to governors of all states, crowned heads of Europe, President Wilson and Cabinet and men and women prominent in the affairs of the nation to be present when the roadway through the gorge of the Columbia is dedicated to the tourist travel of the world.

at a neighbor's."

"Yes, but what has she gone to the doctor for?"

"She wants to find out why she can't sleep nights."

The Trolley.

"Doesn't a motor-man get a shock now and then?"

"Oh, no. You see, he's always a non-conductor."

The Awful Part.

"War is terrible!"

"That's a fact!" replied the proprietor of the Tote Fair Store at Penunia. "Why, dad-burn it, the strategists have whittled up and ett up as many of my dry goods boxes and body crackers since the war began as they would have done in twenty years of checker playing."

A Wonderful Article.

The soap agent had exhausted his stock of adjectives in praise of the brand he represented; still the housewife was undecided.

"Why, madam," said he, with flattery, "with this soap it—it is not necessary to take a bath more than once a year!"

Overcharged.

Kid—Why does the cannon kick, papa?"

Papa—I guess they charged it too much, sonny.—Siren.

Reasons.

The stingiest man in the world sued for divorce because his wife was wasteful and extravagant.

"Will you give the court some specific instances?" asked the lawyer.

"Well, one day she goes and buys three toothbrushes, one for herself and one for each of the kids. And the worst of it was, we already had one good one."—Gargoyle.

Preparedness.

Mr. Tompkins was obliged to stop over-night at a small country hotel. He was shown to his room by the one boy the place afforded, a colored lad.

"I am glad there's a rope here in case of fire," commented Mr. Tompkins, as he surveyed the room, "but what's the idea of putting a Bible in the room in such a prominent place?"

"Dat am intended foh use, sah," replied the boy, "in case de fire am too far advanced foh yo' to make yo' escape, sah."—Harpers' Magazine.

Correct.

"What is the plural of man, Johnny?" asked a teacher of a small pupil.

"Men," answered Johnny.

"Correct," said the teacher. "And what is the plural of child?"

"Twins," was the unexpected reply.

—New York Globe.

Bert Johnson, administrator for the Woolery estate, was in Heppner Tuesday from Ione attending to matters of business.

KRYPTOK LENSES

(Worn by over 250,000 people)

For all other two-vision lenses there is a line or seam between the near and far vision portions that makes the wearer look less than his best, and unmistakably brands him or her with a sign of age.

Kryptok are double-vision lenses that look exactly like regular one-vision lenses because there are no lines or seams in them.

Dr. Winnard can supply these lenses
